MATCH JOTTINGS

FRANKSTON 1 POLONIA 0

Frankston playing Polonia (well known for defensive play, including a very fast breakaway when least expected) proved quite capable of playing a similar game. With both sides looking for a breakthrough, many players were caught offside. Frank Petersen brought off some very good saves and Rob Stewart hit one of his 15 metre piledrivers only to see the ball hit the post with the keeper beaten. Kevin Wall finally got away from Mills when a through pass from David Whiteside fell in front of him. He waltzed through past the goalie and it was in. Credit must go to a great defensive display by all concerned. Colin Mitchell, David Pye, Rob Stewart and Paul Drinoczsky were equally as good as the Polish stars.

FRANKSTON RESERVES played a friendly match against Polonia reserves. The result was a 1-1 draw with the goal by Andy Golby who went on to play a part game in the senior side.

THANK YOU, LADIES!

Many thanks are due to the stalwarts of the LADIES' COMMITTEE who are always on duty at the home games dispensing much appreciated food and drinks. Thank you Ethel Barclay, Claire Belbin, Shirley Henley, Pat Giblin and your capable young assistants, Amanda Smith and Jacqui Lines.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

but the (supposedly) fit Geoff Wallace and Harry Chalkitis are no match on the squash court for Les Smith and Edgar Herper.

COUNTRY AND WESTERN NIGHT coming up soon. Enquire at club.
